

DELIA MEMORIAL SCHOOL (BROADWAY)

Notice to Parents/Guardians

23rd October, 2024

Dear Parents / Guardians,

Individual Social Skill Training

Social skills training aims to equip the students with the necessary tools and techniques to navigate social interactions effectively, build meaningful relationships, and enhance communication skills. These sessions are designed to foster social-emotional development, improve social competence, and empower the student to engage more successfully in various social settings. In these individual sessions, the social worker would prepare the training materials, social stories, role-playing Scenarios, and advanced social skill activities for the student to understand more about social thinking in daily social interaction.

The details are as following:
